

The Egyptian Event

Fifth Annual ~ 1985

Continuing in the tradition set during its first four years, The Egyptian Event's fifth annual show included fourteen classes, numerous seminars, a beautiful Hall of Stallions and two major auction sales: The Ali Summer Sale and The Pyramid Society Breeders Sale IV.

The 1983 U.S. Reserve National Champion Stallion, Ruminaja Ali (Shaikh Al Badi x Bint Magidaa) was finally gaining popularity among the Egyptian breeders as a sire and notably, he was one of the leading sires of winners at the 1985 Egyptian Event particularly in the Futurity classes.

Imperial Egyptian Stud won the Two-Year-Old Breeders Fund Fillies with Imperial Imtiarah (Ansata Imperial x Imperial Mistry) and were pleased with the record of their stallion, Ansata Imperial (Ansata Ibn Sudan x Ansata Delilah), sire of three first place winners, one second place winner, two third place winners and a fourth place winner at the '85 Event.

Loy and Linda Davidson's Focus Farm also had an impressive show winning the Three-Year-Old Futurity class with Focus Shali (Ruminaja Ali x Shaska), the Three-Year-Old Filly Futurity with Focus Alianna (Ruminaja Ali x Focus Fancy), taking a second in Two-Year-Old Futurity Fillies with Focus Alisha (Focus Shali's younger sister), and a fourth in Two-Year-Old Futurity Colts with Focus Alimus (Ruminaja Ali x Focus Doella).

Imperial Imdal (Ansata Imperial x Dalia) won the Three-Year-Old Colt Breeders Fund and had the highest scores of the show for owners, Pat and Barbara Vallee. Paj Majaal won the Western Pleasure for the third time in four years; the Nabel son, Nabest, won the Pleasure Driving and Amenophsis+ (*Tuhotmos x Al Nahr Ardandi) won a large class (30) of English Pleasure horses.

The Ali Summer Classic Sale was held down the road at Fasig-Tipton on Friday night. Just in case there were a few, lost souls wandering around the Lexington Pikes, a huge hot air balloon with "Ali" emblazoned on the side, marked the entrance. High selling lot of the sale was the 12-year-old *Morafic daughter, Kateefa (x Rudania), purchased by Roy Johns (after a bidding duel with Doug Marshall) for $310,000. In all, the fourteen lots sold for $2,775,000 with a sale average of $198,214. All of the mares in the sale sold with a breeding to Ruminaja Ali. The following night at The Pyramid Society Breeders Sale IV twelve yearling fillies sold for $1,065.00, averaging $88,750. High selling lot was Tajique (x Ghazza), a Shaikh Al Badi daughter who brought $150,000 from the partnership of Jarrell McCracken and Don Ghareeb.
